

districts elect one person annually for a total of three directors per district.

Eight of the newly elected directors will be serving the Association for the very first time, although many of them have or are serving as presidents of alumni clubs.

June 30, 1990, at which time president elect Richard A. Bean will assume the top office. Association presidents, and the three other general officers, will henceforth serve from July 1 to June 30, which corresponds to the group's fiscal year.

ARRANGED AS AN AVANT- GARDE sculpture garden are some of the more than 300 trophies won by the UK debate teams. The nationally acclaimed program, under the direction of professor J.W. Patterson for the past 15 years, and coached by Roger Solt for the past nine years, has won two national titles plus a multitude of regional events as attested to by the trophies displayed. The winning tradition continues as T. A. McKinney and Calvin Rockefeller, both juniors, won over Harvard University in the final round of the 1989 opening National Collegiate Debate Tournament this past September.
